MISSOULA--

The application deadline for admission to the 1979 entering class of the University of Montana School of Law has been moved from April 1 to March 1, 1979, Margery Brown, assistant dean of the school, announced.

This means, she said, that applicants must take the Law School Admission Test (LSAT) that will be given Feb. 3, 1979, unless they have taken the LSAT earlier. The deadline for the February test is Jan. 4, 1979.

She stressed that the latest test scores that will be considered in the current admissions cycle will be from the examination to be given at the law school Feb. 3.

Further information about registration and application procedures for the LSAT and School of Law may be obtained by writing to the University of Montana School of Law, Missoula, MT 59812, or by telephoning (406) 243-4311.
